

Abraham Biderman is Chairman of Eagle Advisers, L.L.C., a diversified financial services and money management firm. From January 1990 to September 2003, he was Executive Vice President of Lipper & Company, a financial services firm based in New York. From 1983 to 1986 he served as Special Advisor to New York City Mayor Edward I. Koch. From 1986 to 1988 he served as Commissioner of Finance for New York City and was Chairman of New York City's Employee Retirement System. From 1988 through December 1989, Mr. Biderman was New York City's Housing Commissioner and Chairman of the Housing Development Corporation. Mr. Biderman also serves as co-Chairman of the World Jewish Restitution Organization, Vice President of the Claims Conference, and is a director of the Metropolitan Council on Jewish Poverty, Touro College, Agudath Israel of America, The Jewish Community Relations Council, Beth Medrash Govoha of Lakewood and numerous other not for profit and philanthropic organizations as well as several public companies listed on United States stock exchanges. Mr. Biderman is a graduate of the City University of New York and is a Certified Public Accountant. Mr. Biderman, his wife Sarah and their family reside in Brooklyn.